While movie-goers will have to wait until spring to see the wonders of Banff on the big screen, the producers behind a locally-shot biopic of artists Peter and Catharine Whyte have released a beautiful movie poster as a sneak peek.

Drawing Home was shot at various points over the year in Calgary, Banff, Lake Louise, Priddis, Morely and Montreal. It tells a sprawling, four-decade tale of the love between the Whytes. It's the debut of German director Markus Rupprecht, who co-wrote the script. The film is in post-production and should be in U.S. and Canadian theatres in late spring of 2013.

The film stars Banff's Juan Riedinger and Calgary's Julie Lynn Mortensen (That's them in the poster) in the lead roles. Rutger Hauer, Kate Mulgrew, Peter Strauss, Wallace Shawn and Kristin Griffith co-star.
